

Mrs. Elliott

Debby Elliott is the counselor and has been at LGCS since 2006. She is from Denver and has lived in the area for six years. She has a B.A. from Colorado University Boulder, majoring in Psychology and a Masters in Social Work from the University of Denver. She has worked at high-risk treatment schools and Residential Treatment programs, including Trailhead Wilderness School. She is married to Ian, who is a fire fighter in Colorado Springs and NE Teller, and is a mother of a three, daughter, Hailey, a son, Tucker, and another daughter, Madelyn. Her personal interests are mountain biking and skiing, and she was a mogul skier at C.U. in Boulder. After working in construction, landscaping, and with teens in the Department of Youth Corrections, she still thinks parenting is the hardest job she's ever had.
