

Ms. Lewis

Pat Lewis is the Principal of Lake George Charter School and has been since 2008. She is originally from Iowa and has lived in this area for 19 years. She has a B.A. in Art Education, M.S. in Adult & Occupational Education and a M.A. in Counseling. She has had 31 years in education and has taught all grades, Pre-K through Graduate Programs. She is married to Steve Smith, a retired police officer, and has three daughters. Her personal interests are historical reenactments and motorcycles. Other jobs she has had include librarian, seamstress, meat packer, waitress and restaurant manager.