

Miss Patty

Patty Moore is the Preschool Director and has worked at LGCS since 1997. She is originally from Illinois and has lived in this area for 30 years. She attended Blackburn College for two years and has taken online courses in Early Childhood Education. She is married, and has one daughter that attended LGCS from Preschool through 6th grade. Her interests include hiking, exploring Colorado, reading and crafts. She used to travel all over the U.S. participating at Art Festivals, made stained glass windows and enjoyed seeing/visiting different areas of the country.